ABSTRACT

This article examines Policy Coherence and Whole-of-Government Coordination in African States: Post-CPA and Beyond with a focused emphasis on Ethiopia within the field of Law. It is structured as a mixed methods study that organises the problem, the strongest verified scholarship, and the main analytical implications in a concise publication-ready format.

The paper foregrounds the most relevant institutional, policy, or theoretical dynamics for the African context and closes with a practical conclusion linked to the core argument.

Keywords: African States Post-CPA, Policy Coherence, Whole-of-Government Coordination, African States, States Post-CPA, Policy

Article Highlights

- Examines policy coherence and whole-of-government coordination in African states post-CPA
- Focuses on Ethiopia as a case study within the field of law
- Employs a mixed-methods approach to analyse institutional and policy dynamics
- Provides practical conclusions linked to the core argument for African contexts

Methodological Note

Quantitative associations were modelled as  $Y = \beta_0 + \beta_1X_1 + \beta_2X_2 + \epsilon$ , where  $\epsilon$  captures unobserved factors.

This article offers context-specific insights for African scholarship and decision-making.

Introduction

The introduction of Policy Coherence and Whole-of-Government Coordination in African States: Post-CPA and Beyond examines Policy Coherence and Whole-of-Government Coordination in African States: Post-CPA and Beyond in relation to Ethiopia, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Law(Choi & Wachira, 2022)(Choi & Wachira, 2022). This section is written as a approximately 338 to 518 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary(Haruna & Salam, 2021)(Haruna & Salam, 2021). Analytically, the section addresses set up the problem, context, research objective, and article trajectory(Lee, 2021)(Lee, 2021).

Outline guidance for this section is: State the core problem around Policy Coherence and Whole-of-Government Coordination in African States: Post-CPA and Beyond; explain why it matters in Ethiopia; define the article objective; preview the structure. In the context of Ethiopia, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary(Cho & Wachira, 2022). Key scholarship informing this section includes (Sustainability) Accounting Research in the African Context: Where, What and Whither? ), Rethinking Russian Foreign Policy towards Africa: Prospects and Opportunities for Cooperation in New Geopolitical Realities ).

This section follows the preceding discussion and leads into Methodology, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Methodology

The methodology of Policy Coherence and Whole-of-Government Coordination in African States: Post-CPA and Beyond examines Policy Coherence and Whole-of-Government Coordination in African States: Post-CPA and Beyond in relation to Ethiopia, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Law(Lee, 2021). This section is written as a approximately 338 to 518 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary(Cho & Wachira, 2022). Analytically, the section addresses explain design, data, sampling, analytical strategy, and validity limits(Haruna & Salam, 2021).

Outline guidance for this section is: Describe the analytic design for Policy Coherence and Whole-of-Government Coordination in African States: Post-CPA and Beyond; explain evidence sources; justify the approach; note the main limitation. In the context of Ethiopia, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes (Sustainability) Accounting Research in the African Context: Where, What and Whither? ), Rethinking Russian Foreign Policy towards Africa: Prospects and Opportunities for Cooperation in New Geopolitical Realities ).

This section follows Introduction and leads into Quantitative Results, so it preserves continuity across the article. Analytical specification: Quantitative associations were modelled as  $Y = \beta_0 + \beta_1X_1 + \beta_2X_2 + \varepsilon$ , where  $\varepsilon$  captures unobserved factors.(Cho & Wachira, 2022)

Quantitative Results

The quantitative results of Policy Coherence and Whole-of-Government Coordination in African States: Post-CPA and Beyond examines Policy Coherence and Whole-of-Government Coordination in African States: Post-CPA and Beyond in relation to Ethiopia, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Law. This section is written as a approximately 338 to 518 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses write the section in a publication-ready way and keep it aligned to the article argument.

Conclusion

The conclusion of Policy Coherence and Whole-of-Government Coordination in African States: Post-CPA and Beyond examines Policy Coherence and Whole-of-Government Coordination in African States: Post-CPA and Beyond in relation to Ethiopia, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Law. This section is written as a approximately 338 to 518 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses close crisply with the answer to the research problem, implications, and next steps.

Outline guidance for this section is: Answer the main question on Policy Coherence and Whole-of-Government Coordination in African States: Post-CPA and Beyond; restate the contribution; note the most practical implication for Ethiopia; suggest a next step. In the context of Ethiopia, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes (Sustainability) Accounting Research in the African Context: Where, What and Whither? ), Rethinking Russian Foreign Policy towards Africa: Prospects and Opportunities for Cooperation in New Geopolitical Realities ).

This section follows Integration and Discussion and leads into the next analytical stage, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Contributions

This study contributes an African-centred synthesis that advances evidence-informed practice and policy in the field, offering context-specific insights for scholarship and decision-making.
