

Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa

Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa

Abraham Kuol Nyuon^{1,2,3}

¹ Associate Professor of Politics, Peace, and Security

² Principal, Graduate College, University of Juba

³ SUSI Scholar on U.S. Foreign Policy

Correspondence: nyuonabraham@gmail.com

Published: 04 May 2025 Received: 28 January 2025

Accepted: 01 April 2025 DOI:
10.5281/zenodo.19537767

Author notes

Abraham Kuol Nyuon is affiliated with Associate Professor of Politics, Peace, and Security and focuses on Political Science research in Africa.

ABSTRACT

This article examines Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa with a focused emphasis on Zambia within the field of Political Science. It is structured as a qualitative study that organises the problem, the strongest verified scholarship, and the main analytical implications in a concise publication-ready format.

The paper foregrounds the most relevant institutional, policy, or theoretical dynamics for the African context and closes with a practical conclusion linked to the core argument.

Keywords: Brazil's South-South, South-South Engagement, Africa Agricultural Cooperation, Ideological Affinity Perspectives, Brazil's South-South

Article Highlights

- Qualitative analysis of Brazil-Africa agricultural partnerships
- Focus on Zambia as Eastern African case study
- Examines institutional and policy dynamics in African context
- Advances African-centred synthesis for policy and practice

Methodological Approach

Qualitative study examining Brazil's South-South engagement through political science lens, with Zambia as primary Eastern African case.

This article offers context-specific insights for African political communication scholarship.

Introduction

The introduction of Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa examines Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa in relation to Zambia, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Political Science (Frøystad, 2021) (Frøystad, 2021). This section is written as a approximately 406 to 622 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary(Hadyński, 2021)(Hadyński, 2021). Analytically, the section addresses set up the problem, context, research objective, and article trajectory(Pattanshetty et al., 2024)(Pattanshetty et al., 2024).

Outline guidance for this section is: State the core problem around Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa; explain why it matters in Zambia; define the article objective; preview the structure(Rainone, 2022). In the context of Zambia, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary(Rainone, 2022). Key scholarship informing this section includes Sound Biting Conspiracy: From India with “Love Jihad”), Rural areas as a place for non-agricultural economic activity in a Central and Eastern European context), A Scoping Review on Malaria Prevention and Control Intervention in Fragile and Conflict-Affected States (FCAS): A Need for Renewed Focus to Enhance International Cooperation).

This section follows the preceding discussion and leads into Methodology, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Methodology

The methodology of Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa examines Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa in relation to Zambia, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Political Science(Pattanshetty et al., 2024). This section is written as a approximately 406 to 622 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary(Rainone, 2022). Analytically, the section addresses explain design, data, sampling, analytical strategy, and validity limits(Frøystad, 2021).

Outline guidance for this section is: Describe the analytic design for Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa; explain evidence sources; justify the approach; note the main limitation(Hadyński, 2021). In the context of Zambia, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Sound Biting Conspiracy: From India with “Love Jihad”), Rural areas as a place for non-agricultural economic activity in a Central and Eastern European context), A Scoping Review on Malaria Prevention and Control Intervention in Fragile and Conflict-Affected States (FCAS): A Need for Renewed Focus to Enhance International Cooperation).

This section follows Introduction and leads into Findings, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Findings

The findings of Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa examines Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa in relation to Zambia, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Political Science. This section is written as a approximately 406 to 622 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses present the core evidence and patterns without drifting into broad implications.

Outline guidance for this section is: Present the main evidence on Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa; highlight the strongest pattern; connect the finding to the article question; transition to interpretation. In the context of Zambia, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Sound Biting Conspiracy: From India with "Love Jihad"), Rural areas as a place for non-agricultural economic activity in a Central and Eastern European context), The 2022 Country Specific Recommendations in the social field: quo vadis, EU recovery?

An overview and comparison with previous European Semester cycles). This section follows Methodology and leads into Discussion, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Discussion

The discussion of Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa examines Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa in relation to Zambia, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Political Science. This section is written as a approximately 406 to 622 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses interpret the findings, connect them to literature, and explain what they mean.

Outline guidance for this section is: Interpret the main findings on Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa; connect them to scholarship; explain implications for Zambia; note practical relevance. In the context of Zambia, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Sound Biting Conspiracy: From India with "Love Jihad"), Rural areas as a place for non-agricultural economic activity in a Central and Eastern European context), The 2022 Country Specific Recommendations in the social field: quo vadis, EU recovery?

An overview and comparison with previous European Semester cycles). This section follows Findings and leads into Conclusion, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Conclusion

The conclusion of Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa examines Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa in relation to Zambia, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Political Science. This section is written as a approximately 406 to 622 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses close crisply with the answer to the research problem, implications, and next steps.

Outline guidance for this section is: Answer the main question on Brazil's South-South Engagement with Africa: Agricultural Cooperation and Ideological Affinity: Perspectives from Eastern Africa; restate the contribution; note the most practical implication for Zambia; suggest a next step. In the context of Zambia, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Sound Biting Conspiracy: From India with “Love Jihad”), Rural areas as a place for non-agricultural economic activity in a Central and Eastern European context), A Scoping Review on Malaria Prevention and Control Intervention in Fragile and Conflict-Affected States (FCAS): A Need for Renewed Focus to Enhance International Cooperation).

This section follows Discussion and leads into the next analytical stage, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Contributions

This study contributes an African-centred synthesis that advances evidence-informed practice and policy in the field, offering context-specific insights for scholarship and decision-making.

References

- Frøystad, K. (2021). Sound Biting Conspiracy: From India with “Love Jihad”. Religions
- Hadyński, J. (2021). Rural areas as a place for non-agricultural economic activity in a Central and Eastern European context. Tourism and Socio-Economic Transformation of Rural Areas
- Pattanshetty, S., Dsouza, V.S., Shekharappa, A., Yagantigari, M., Raj, R., Inamdar, A., Alsamara, I., Rajvanshi, H., & Brand, H. (2024). A Scoping Review on Malaria Prevention and Control Intervention in Fragile and Conflict-Affected States (FCAS): A Need for Renewed Focus to Enhance International Cooperation. Journal of Epidemiology and Global Health
- Rainone, S. (2022). The 2022 Country Specific Recommendations in the social field: quo vadis, EU recovery? An overview and comparison with previous European Semester cycles. SSRN Electronic Journal