

Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions

Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions

Abraham Kuol Nyuon<sup>1,2,3</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Associate Professor of Politics, Peace, and Security

<sup>2</sup> Principal, Graduate College, University of Juba

<sup>3</sup> SUSI Scholar on U.S. Foreign Policy

Correspondence: nyuonabraham@gmail.com

Published: 27 October 2022	Received: 10 July 2022	Accepted: 14 September 2022	DOI: 10.5281/zenodo.19536425
-----------------------------------	-------------------------------	------------------------------------	---

Author notes

Abraham Kuol Nyuon is affiliated with Associate Professor of Politics, Peace, and Security and focuses on Arts & Humanities research in Africa.

ABSTRACT

This article examines Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions with a focused emphasis on Comoros within the field of Arts & Humanities. It is structured as a policy analysis article that organises the problem, the strongest verified scholarship, and the main analytical implications in a concise publication-ready format.

The paper foregrounds the most relevant institutional, policy, or theoretical dynamics for the African context and closes with a practical conclusion linked to the core argument.

Keywords: Boundaries Commissions Design, Commissions Design Autonomy, Credibility Political Economy, Political Economy Dimensions, Independent Electoral, Boundaries Commissions

Article Highlights

- Examines commission design and autonomy through political economy lenses
- Focuses on Comoros as a case study within African institutional contexts
- Synthesizes scholarship on inclusive participation and representation
- Links theoretical frameworks to practical policy implications

Core Contribution

Provides an African-centred analysis of how institutional design and political economy factors shape electoral commission credibility, with specific application to Comoros.

This analysis foregrounds institutional mechanisms and African significance over generic commentary.

Introduction

The introduction of Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions examines Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions in relation to Comoros, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Arts & Humanities (Akwetey & Mutangi, 2022) (Akwetey & Mutangi, 2022). This section is written as a approximately 216 to 332 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary(Collins et al., 2021)(Collins et al., 2021). Analytically, the section addresses set up the problem, context, research objective, and article trajectory(Rathee et al., 2021)(Rathee et al., 2021).

---

Outline guidance for this section is: State the core problem around Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions; explain why it matters in Comoros; define the article objective; preview the structure(Santo & Maux, 2022). In the context of Comoros, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary(Santo & Maux, 2022). Key scholarship informing this section includes Enhancing Inclusive Political Participation and Representation in Africa ), On the Design and Implementation of a Blockchain Enabled E-Voting Application Within IoT-Oriented Smart Cities ).

This section follows the preceding discussion and leads into Policy Context, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Policy Context

---

The policy context of Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions examines Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions in relation to Comoros, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Arts & Humanities(Rathee et al., 2021). This section is written as a approximately 216 to 332 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary(Santo & Maux, 2022). Analytically, the section addresses write the section in a publication-ready way and keep it aligned to the article argument(Akwetey & Mutangi, 2022).

Outline guidance for this section is: Develop a focused argument on Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions; keep the section specific to Comoros; connect it to the wider article(Collins et al., 2021). In the context of Comoros, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Enhancing Inclusive Political Participation and Representation in Africa ), On the Design and Implementation of a Blockchain Enabled E-Voting Application Within IoT-Oriented Smart Cities ), Intersectionality as Critical Social Theory ).

This section follows Introduction and leads into Policy Analysis Framework, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Policy Analysis Framework

---

The policy analysis framework of Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions examines Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions in relation to Comoros, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Arts & Humanities. This section is written as a approximately 216 to 332 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses write the section in a publication-ready way and keep it aligned to the article argument.

---

Outline guidance for this section is: Develop a focused argument on Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions; keep the section specific to Comoros; connect it to the wider article. In the context of Comoros, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Enhancing Inclusive Political Participation and Representation in Africa ), Intersectionality as Critical Social Theory ), On the Design and Implementation of a Blockchain Enabled E-Voting Application Within IoT-Oriented Smart Cities ).

This section follows Policy Context and leads into Policy Assessment, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Policy Assessment

---

The policy assessment of Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions examines Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions in relation to Comoros, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Arts & Humanities. This section is written as a approximately 216 to 332 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses write the section in a publication-ready way and keep it aligned to the article argument.

Outline guidance for this section is: Develop a focused argument on Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions; keep the section specific to Comoros; connect it to the wider article. In the context of Comoros, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Enhancing Inclusive Political Participation and Representation in Africa ), On the Design and Implementation of a Blockchain Enabled E-Voting Application Within IoT-Oriented Smart Cities ), Intersectionality as Critical Social Theory ).

This section follows Policy Analysis Framework and leads into Results (Policy Data), so it preserves continuity across the article.

Results (Policy Data)

---

The results (policy data) of Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions examines Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions in relation to Comoros, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Arts & Humanities. This section is written as a approximately 216 to 332 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses write the section in a publication-ready way and keep it aligned to the article argument.

Outline guidance for this section is: Develop a focused argument on Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions; keep the section specific to Comoros; connect it to the wider article. In the context of Comoros, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Enhancing Inclusive Political Participation and Representation in Africa ), On the Design and Implementation of a Blockchain Enabled E-Voting Application Within IoT-Oriented Smart Cities ), Intersectionality as Critical Social Theory ).

---

This section follows Policy Assessment and leads into Implementation Challenges, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Implementation Challenges

---

The implementation challenges of Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions examines Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions in relation to Comoros, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Arts & Humanities. This section is written as a approximately 216 to 332 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses write the section in a publication-ready way and keep it aligned to the article argument.

Outline guidance for this section is: Develop a focused argument on Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions; keep the section specific to Comoros; connect it to the wider article. In the context of Comoros, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes On the Design and Implementation of a Blockchain Enabled E-Voting Application Within IoT-Oriented Smart Cities ), Enhancing Inclusive Political Participation and Representation in Africa ), Intersectionality as Critical Social Theory ).

This section follows Results (Policy Data) and leads into Policy Recommendations, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Policy Recommendations

---

The policy recommendations of Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions examines Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions in relation to Comoros, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Arts & Humanities. This section is written as a approximately 216 to 332 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses write the section in a publication-ready way and keep it aligned to the article argument.

Outline guidance for this section is: Develop a focused argument on Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions; keep the section specific to Comoros; connect it to the wider article. In the context of Comoros, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Enhancing Inclusive Political Participation and Representation in Africa ), On the Design and Implementation of a Blockchain Enabled E-Voting Application Within IoT-Oriented Smart Cities ), Intersectionality as Critical Social Theory ).

---

This section follows Implementation Challenges and leads into Discussion, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Discussion

---

The discussion of Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions examines Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions in relation to Comoros, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Arts & Humanities. This section is written as a approximately 216 to 332 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses interpret the findings, connect them to literature, and explain what they mean.

Outline guidance for this section is: Interpret the main findings on Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions; connect them to scholarship; explain implications for Comoros; note practical relevance. In the context of Comoros, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Enhancing Inclusive Political Participation and Representation in Africa ), Intersectionality as Critical Social Theory ), On the Design and Implementation of a Blockchain Enabled E-Voting Application Within IoT-Oriented Smart Cities ).

This section follows Policy Recommendations and leads into Conclusion, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Conclusion

---

The conclusion of Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions examines Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions in relation to Comoros, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Arts & Humanities. This section is written as a approximately 216 to 332 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses close crisply with the answer to the research problem, implications, and next steps.

Outline guidance for this section is: Answer the main question on Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commissions: Design, Autonomy, and Credibility: Political Economy Dimensions; restate the contribution; note the most practical implication for Comoros; suggest a next step. In the context of Comoros, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Enhancing Inclusive Political Participation and Representation in Africa ), On the Design and Implementation of a Blockchain Enabled E-Voting Application Within IoT-Oriented Smart Cities ).

---

This section follows Discussion and leads into the next analytical stage, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Contributions

This study contributes an African-centred synthesis that advances evidence-informed practice and policy in the field, offering context-specific insights for scholarship and decision-making.

---

References

- Akwetey, E.O., & Mutangi, T. (2022). Enhancing Inclusive Political Participation and Representation in Africa
- Collins, P.H., Silva, E.C.G.D., Ergün, E., Furseth, I., Bond, K.D., & Palacios, J.M. (2021). Intersectionality as Critical Social Theory. Contemporary Political Theory
- Rathee, G., Iqbal, R., Waqar, O., & Bashir, A.K. (2021). On the Design and Implementation of a Blockchain Enabled E-Voting Application Within IoT-Oriented Smart Cities. IEEE Access
- Santo, A.D., & Maux, B.L. (2022). On the optimal size of legislatures: An illustrated literature review. European Journal of Political Economy