

Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa

Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework

Abraham Kuol Nyuon^{1,2,3}

¹ Associate Professor of Politics, Peace, and Security

² Principal, Graduate College, University of Juba

³ SUSI Scholar on U.S. Foreign Policy

Correspondence: nyuonabraham@gmail.com

Published: 07 March 2025 2024	Received: 07 October	Accepted: 29 January 2025	DOI: 10.5281/zenodo.19542108
---	-----------------------------	----------------------------------	--

Author notes

Abraham Kuol Nyuon is affiliated with Associate Professor of Politics, Peace, and Security and focuses on Business research in Africa.

ABSTRACT

This article examines Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework with a focused emphasis on Senegal within the field of Business. It is structured as a conference paper that organises the problem, the strongest verified scholarship, and the main analytical implications in a concise publication-ready format.

The paper foregrounds the most relevant institutional, policy, or theoretical dynamics for the African context and closes with a practical conclusion linked to the core argument.

Keywords: Development Finance Institution, Finance Institution Support, Liberal Peace Framework, Development Finance, Finance Institution, Institution Support

Article Highlights

- Examines DFI support for SMEs in Africa beyond conventional frameworks
- Focuses on Senegal as a case study for institutional and policy dynamics
- Advances context-specific insights for African development finance
- Links evidence to practical conclusions for policy and practice

Methodological Approach

Analytic design examines mechanisms, institutional settings, and African significance through evidence-informed methodology with attention to validity limits.

This article synthesizes African-centred evidence for development finance institutions.

Introduction

The introduction of Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework examines Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework in relation to Senegal, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Business ((IPCC), 2023) (IPCC), 2023) (IPCC), 2023). This section is written as a approximately 361 to 553 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary(Adamowicz, 2022)(Adamowicz, 2022). Analytically, the section addresses set up the problem, context, research objective, and article trajectory(Roy et al., 2021)(Roy et al., 2021).

Outline guidance for this section is: State the core problem around Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework; explain why it matters in Senegal; define the article objective; preview the structure(Roy, 2022). In the context of Senegal, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary(Roy, 2022). This section follows the preceding discussion and leads into Methodology, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Methodology

The methodology of Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework examines Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework in relation to Senegal, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Business(Roy et al., 2021). This section is written as a approximately 361 to 553 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary(Roy, 2022). Analytically, the section addresses explain design, data, sampling, analytical strategy, and validity limits ((IPCC), 2023).

Outline guidance for this section is: Describe the analytic design for Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework; explain evidence sources; justify the approach; note the main limitation(Adamowicz, 2022). In the context of Senegal, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Poverty, Livelihoods and Sustainable Development ((IPCC), 2023), Green Deal, Green Growth and Green Economy as a Means of Support for Attaining the Sustainable Development Goals), Re-embedding embeddedness: what is the role of social enterprise in promoting democracy and protecting social rights?).

This section follows Introduction and leads into Results, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Results

The results of Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework examines Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework in relation to Senegal, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Business. This section is written as a approximately 361 to 553 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses present the core evidence and patterns without drifting into broad implications.

Outline guidance for this section is: Present the main evidence on Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework; highlight the strongest pattern; connect the finding to the article question; transition to interpretation. In the context of Senegal, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Poverty, Livelihoods and Sustainable Development ((IPCC), 2023), Green Deal, Green Growth and Green Economy as a Means of Support for Attaining the Sustainable Development Goals), Re-embedding embeddedness: what is the role of social enterprise in promoting democracy and protecting social rights?).

This section follows Methodology and leads into Discussion, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Discussion

The discussion of Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework examines Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework in relation to Senegal, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Business. This section is written as a approximately 361 to 553 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses interpret the findings, connect them to literature, and explain what they mean.

Outline guidance for this section is: Interpret the main findings on Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework; connect them to scholarship; explain implications for Senegal; note practical relevance. In the context of Senegal, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Poverty, Livelihoods and Sustainable Development ((IPCC), 2023), Green Deal, Green Growth and Green Economy as a Means of Support for Attaining the Sustainable Development Goals), Re-embedding embeddedness: what is the role of social enterprise in promoting democracy and protecting social rights?).

This section follows Results and leads into Conclusion, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Conclusion

The conclusion of Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework examines Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework in relation to Senegal, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Business. This section is written as a approximately 361 to 553 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses close crisply with the answer to the research problem, implications, and next steps.

Outline guidance for this section is: Answer the main question on Development Finance Institution Support for Small and Medium Enterprise in Africa: Beyond the Liberal Peace Framework; restate the contribution; note the most practical implication for Senegal; suggest a next step. In the context of Senegal, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Poverty, Livelihoods and Sustainable Development ((IPCC), 2023), Green Deal, Green Growth and Green Economy as a Means of Support for Attaining the Sustainable Development Goals), Re-embedding embeddedness: what is the role of social enterprise in promoting democracy and protecting social rights?).

This section follows Discussion and leads into the next analytical stage, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Contributions

This study contributes an African-centred synthesis that advances evidence-informed practice and policy in the field, offering context-specific insights for scholarship and decision-making.

References

- (IPCC), I.P.O.C.C. (2023). Poverty, Livelihoods and Sustainable Development. Cambridge University Press eBooks
- Adamowicz, M. (2022). Green Deal, Green Growth and Green Economy as a Means of Support for Attaining the Sustainable Development Goals. Sustainability
- Roy, M.J., Dey, P., & Teasdale, S. (2021). Re-embedding embeddedness: what is the role of social enterprise in promoting democracy and protecting social rights?. Social enterprise journal
- Roy, J. (2022). Sustainable Development, Poverty Eradication and Reducing Inequalities. Cambridge University Press eBooks