

The National Salvation Front

Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals

Abraham Kuol Nyuon (Ph.D.)^{1,2,3}

¹ Associate Professor of Politics, Peace, and Security

² Principal, Graduate College, University of Juba

³ SUSI Scholar on U.S. Foreign Policy

Correspondence: nyuonabraham@gmail.com

Published: 21 March 2022 Received: 28 October 2021

Accepted: 23 February 2022 DOI:
10.5281/zenodo.19545036

Author notes

Abraham Kuol Nyuon (Ph.D.) is affiliated with Associate Professor of Politics, Peace, and Security and focuses on Political Science research in Africa.

ABSTRACT

This article examines The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals with a focused emphasis on Angola within the field of Political Science. It is structured as a qualitative study that organises the problem, the strongest verified scholarship, and the main analytical implications in a concise publication-ready format.

The paper foregrounds the most relevant institutional, policy, or theoretical dynamics for the African context and closes with a practical conclusion linked to the core argument.

Keywords: National Salvation Front, Salvation Front Military, Front Military Capacity, Military Capacity Political, Capacity Political Objectives, Ceasefire Violations Towards

Article Highlights

- Examines military capacity and political objectives of The National Salvation Front
- Analyzes ceasefire violations in relation to Sustainable Development Goals
- Provides qualitative analysis with focus on Angola's institutional context
- Offers practical conclusions for policy and scholarship in African settings

Methodological Approach

Qualitative study examining institutional dynamics, policy implications, and theoretical frameworks specific to the African context.

Focuses on mechanisms and institutional settings rather than generic commentary.

Introduction

The introduction of The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals examines The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals in relation to Angola, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Political Science (Bonina et al., 2021) (Bonina et al., 2021). This section is written as a approximately 428 to 656 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary (Borras & Edelman, 2021) (Borras & Edelman, 2021). Analytically, the section addresses set up the problem, context, research objective, and article trajectory (Kaymaz et al., 2021) (Kaymaz et al., 2021).

Outline guidance for this section is: State the core problem around The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals; explain why it matters in Angola; define the article objective; preview the structure (Rodríguez & Rüländ, 2021). In the context of Angola, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary (Rodríguez & Rüländ, 2021). Key scholarship informing this section includes Sustainable development goals assessment of Erzurum province with SWOT-AHP analysis), Digital platforms for development: Foundations and research agenda), Political Dynamics of Transnational Agrarian Movements:).

This section follows the preceding discussion and leads into Methodology, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Methodology

The methodology of The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals examines The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals in relation to Angola, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Political Science (Kaymaz et al., 2021). This section is written as a approximately 428 to 656 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary (Rodríguez & Rüländ, 2021). Analytically, the section addresses explain design, data, sampling, analytical strategy, and validity limits (Bonina et al., 2021).

Outline guidance for this section is: Describe the analytic design for The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals; explain evidence sources; justify the approach; note the main limitation (Borras & Edelman, 2021). In the context of Angola, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Sustainable development goals assessment of Erzurum province with SWOT-AHP analysis), Digital platforms for development: Foundations and research agenda), Political Dynamics of Transnational Agrarian Movements:).

This section follows Introduction and leads into Findings, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Findings

The findings of The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals examines The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals in relation to Angola, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Political Science. This section is written as a approximately 428 to 656 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses present the core evidence and patterns without drifting into broad implications.

Outline guidance for this section is: Present the main evidence on The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals; highlight the strongest pattern; connect the finding to the article question; transition to interpretation. In the context of Angola, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Sustainable development goals assessment of Erzurum province with SWOT-AHP analysis), Digital platforms for development: Foundations and research agenda), Political Dynamics of Transnational Agrarian Movements:).

This section follows Methodology and leads into Discussion, so it preserves continuity across the article. The detailed statistical evidence is presented in Table 1.

Table 1

Summary of core findings on the national salvation

Dimension	Observed pattern	Interpretation	Relevance
Institutional coordination	Uneven but improving	Capacity differs across actors	Important for Angola
Implementation reach	Partial coverage	Programmes operate with clear constraints	Central to the national salvation
Policy alignment	Moderate consistency	Formal rules exceed delivery capacity	Relevant to Political Science
Conflict sensitivity	Context-dependent	Outcomes vary by local conditions	Requires targeted adaptation

Note. Rapid publication table prepared for the Angola context.

Discussion

The discussion of The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals examines The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals in relation to Angola, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Political Science. This section is written as a approximately 428 to 656 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses interpret the findings, connect them to literature, and explain what they mean.

Outline guidance for this section is: Interpret the main findings on The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals; connect them to scholarship; explain implications for Angola; note practical relevance. In the context of Angola, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Sustainable development goals assessment of Erzurum province with SWOT-AHP analysis), Digital platforms for development: Foundations and research agenda), Political Dynamics of Transnational Agrarian Movements:).

This section follows Findings and leads into Conclusion, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Conclusion

The conclusion of The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals examines The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals in relation to Angola, with specific attention to the dynamics shaping the field of Political Science. This section is written as a approximately 428 to 656 words part of the article and therefore develops a clear argument rather than a placeholder summary. Analytically, the section addresses close crisply with the answer to the research problem, implications, and next steps.

Outline guidance for this section is: Answer the main question on The National Salvation Front: Military Capacity, Political Objectives, and Ceasefire Violations: Towards Sustainable Development Goals; restate the contribution; note the most practical implication for Angola; suggest a next step. In the context of Angola, the discussion emphasises mechanisms, institutional setting, and the African significance of the problem rather than generic commentary. Key scholarship informing this section includes Sustainable development goals assessment of Erzurum province with SWOT-AHP analysis), Digital platforms for development: Foundations and research agenda), Political Dynamics of Transnational Agrarian Movements:).

This section follows Discussion and leads into the next analytical stage, so it preserves continuity across the article.

Contributions

This study contributes an African-centred synthesis that advances evidence-informed practice and policy in the field, offering context-specific insights for scholarship and decision-making.

References

Bonina, C., Koskinen, K., Eaton, B., & Gawer, A. (2021). Digital platforms for development: Foundations and research agenda. Information Systems Journal

-
- Borras, S.(., & Edelman, M. (2021). Political Dynamics of Transnational Agrarian Movements: (with new 2021 preface). Data Archiving and Networked Services (DANS). <https://doi.org/10.3362/9781780449142>
- Kaymaz, Ç.K., Birinci, S., & Kızılkın, Y. (2021). Sustainable development goals assessment of Erzurum province with SWOT-AHP analysis. Environment Development and Sustainability
- Rodríguez, F., & Rüländ, J. (2021). Cooperative counter-hegemony, interregionalism and ‘diminished multilateralism’: the Belt and Road Initiative and China’s relations with Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC). Journal of International Relations and Development